STAGE IS SET FOR ELECTION NEXT TUESDAY

To Vote On Change In Forming of City Government

ALL URGED TO VOTE

Promoters Favoring Change Predict Measure Will Carry By a Large Majority

Freeholders of the city next Tuesday will decide whether or not Alexandria will have a new form of government. With only two days before the election intervening the interest becomes more pronounced. Those fostering the change are making every effort to get out a big vote on Tuesday and judging from present indications their efforts will be rewarded. Every taxpayer is vitally interested and should cast their ballot on Tuesday.

Several years ago when this issue was up there was organized opposition to the movement. This time, however, there is no such thing and the only opposition is what feeble individual opposition that may exist.

Those favoring the change predict that the measure this time will carry by a sweeping majority and feel confident of this. Their opinion along these lines appears to be general among the voters.

The voting will take place at the usual places in the four wards and the polls will open at sunrise and close at sunset.

The women of the city have become interested in the move and indications are that a large majority of the women voters of the city will take part in the election.

As heretofore stated in the columns of the Gazette, the plan provides that if the measure is adopted there will be an election next June for the purpose of selecting five councilmen at large. The councilmen will receive a salary and one of the five will be elected mayor. The council will take office September 1, 1922, and they will select a business manager.

A number of persons who contemplate running for council already are feeling their way and sounding out the voters on their prospects according to reports, and although it is a long time yet—exactly eight months—it is believed that immediately after this election the race for council will be started and it is believed that there will be an abundance of candidates in the field by the time election time rolls around next summer.

According to reports some of the present members of the city council may run for office.

The councilmen so elected will serve for a term of four years and as already stated they elect the business manager and the council has a right to end his services at any time they may see fit in the event the business manager does not in their opinion meet the city's requirements.

Already people are speculating on where they will obtain the business manager. However, no one can at this early date make a suggestion as this matter will be entirely in the hands of the members of the city council elected next June.

MANY WOUNDS ON MURDERED WOMAN'S HEAD

Eastlake and Miss Knox Accused of Crime at Colonial Beach

HATCHET WAS USED

Blood-Stained Pistol Also Found Under Doorstep of House. Husband is Petty Officer in Navy.

Colonial Beach, Va., Oct. 1.—One of the most sensational murders in the history of this section occurred here this morning when Mrs. R. D. Eastlake came to her death, according to the verdict of a coroner's jury, at the hands of her husband, R. D. Eastlake, and a woman who gives her name as Sarah E. Konx, and who claims Baltimore as her home. The body was discovered early this morning when Miss Knox aroused the neighborhood and informed people that Mrs. Eastlake had been murdered. She declares she spent the night in a small house about 10 yards from Eastlake's house, in order that she might see him early this morning when he left for his work and accompany him to the naval proving grounds at Dahlgren, Va., where Eastlake is serving a term as a petty officer in the navy. She says she saw a man run from the house about 6 o'clock this morning and that she ran in the house and found Mrs. Eastlake's body.

Word was sent to Eastlake that his wife had been murdered. When informed of this fact he showed no emotion. His indifferent demeanor he maintained on his return to the house and throughout the inquest. He says he arose this morning at 5 o'clock, left at 5:30 and went direct to the wharf where the boat was to leave for the naval proving grounds. He also says his wife prepared breakfast for him and she was alive when he left the house.

Mrs. Eastlake's body and head were badly mutilated. When she was found on the floor of the dining room severe wounds had been inflicted with a hatchet which was found later near the scene. Twenty-nine scalp wounds were counted by the doctor and her head was almost severed from the body. A pistol was found marked with blood stains under the step of the house in which Miss Knox says she spent the night. A rain coat was found in some undergrowth nearbly. It had blood spots on it and is believed to belong to Miss Knox.

Evidence showed that the hatchet and evidently been washed, as the kitchen sink contained clots of blood Blood spots were also found on the clothes of Miss Knox. Two children of Mr. and Mrs. Eastlake, 8 and 10 years of age, were asleep in an adjoining room when their mother was murdered. They say they came out of their room in the early morning, when they were awakened by a noise. They say they rushed back into the room by their father, who told them that their mother had been hurt and was being taken to the hospital.

Eastlake and his family came to Colonial Beach to live about two years ago when he was stationed at the naval proving grounds at Dahlgren, which is near Colonial Beach.

It is stated that Miss Knox came with them to the beach and lived in the same house for several days, when her presence became obnoxious to Mrs. Eastlake and she left. Since that time she has returned several times to the Eastlake home, but only for short periods. Upon her first appearance at Colonial Beach with Eastlake she said that she was his aunt. Mrs. Eastlake has made the statement to her neighbors that she lived in terror of Miss Knox and the very sight of her unnerved her for several days. Mrs. Eastlake was held in the highest esteem by persons at Colonial Beach

Eastlake and Miss Knox have been taken to Montross, the county seat of Westmoreland county, where they were placed in the county jail to await the action of the grand jury.

WORK FOR LEPERS

W M. Danner To Speak In Three Churches

William M. Danner, general secretary of the Mission to Lepers, will be the guest and speaker in several of the local churches tomorrow. At 11 o'clock tomorrow morning he will address the congregation of the First Baptist Church. This will be a particularly interesting message for Mr. Danner will doubtless tell of the marvelous work that has been accomplished by the Baptists in administering spiritual and physical aid to the sufferers from the dread disease of leprosy. In the evening at 8 o'clock Mr. Danner will speak in St. Paul's Protestant Episcopal Church, telling his story of the great work already done and the greater work still to be done by the Mission in its campaign to rid the world of leprosy, fulfilling Christ's command to "cleanse the lepers."

At 3:30 o'clock in the afternoon a meeting has been called in the Sunday School room of the M. E. Church South, at which it is hoped all the churches in the city will be well represented. The Mission to Lepers is an interdenominational organization, accomplishing its work through the support and co-operation of all churches, and the meeting tomorrow afternoon has been planned for the purpose of giving everybody in Alexandria who is interested, or willing to be interested in the Mission's work an opportunity to hear the story of the things that have been achieved. All of the local churches are not represented in the Alexandria Auxiliary of the Mission, but it is earnestly hoped that they will be as a result of this meeting.

Mrs. Anna N. Rogers, as president of the Senior Young People's Missionary Society of the M. E. Church South, founded the Alexandria Auxiliary of the Mission to Lepers in 1916, among the members of her Society. A year later the organization was broadened, and through the efforts of the late Mrs. Landon R. Mason, of Richmond, an auxiliary was developed that included representation from nearly every church in the city. Since that time the activity of the organization has steadily increased. Officers of the Auxiliary at this time are Mrs. M W. O'Brien, president; Mrs. William J. Campbell, vice president; Miss Mary Williamson, treasurer, and Miss Margaret Germond, secretary.

RELIEF FELT OVER IRISH ACCEPTANCE

De Valera's Reply is Regarded as Placing Matter on New Basis

DETAILS UNDECIDED

Conference May Preclude Possibility of Premier Attending Armament Congress Here.

London, Oct. 1.—In a brief, business like message, Eamonn de Valera yesterday evening informed Premier Lloyd George of his acceptance of the Premier's invitation for a conference in London October 11 on the Irish question, thus clearing the way for a momentous attempt to settle the centuries old problem between Ireland and Great Britain.

Relief was expressed in official circles here last night that the difficulties which for some time seemingly threatened to prevent another conference apparently had been cleared away by the message of Mr. de Valera. The reply raised no question as to the status of the Sinn Fein delegates, and no further correspondence between the Premier and the Irish leader is expected.

"Our respective positions have been stated and understood, and we agree that conference, not correspondence, is the most practical and hopeful way to an understanding," said Mr. de Valera's message in announcing that the Irish delegates would meet Mr. Lloyd George on the date the Premier had set.

The formula of the association of Ireland with other communities of the British Empire, for which the mind of Mr. Lloyd George was responsible, has finally brought together two sides to the long drawn out controversy on terms which, it is considered here, involve the surrender of neither side.

The conference is expected to be unprecedented in the history of Great Britain, if not of Europe. One result of it will be the cancellation of all hopes of Mr. Lloyd George attending the Washington armament conference because the country will look to his diplomacy to steer the empire through the waters of the complicated undertaking.

The belief was expressed in high quarters last night that if Mr. Lloyd George is successful in the task of bringing about peace in Ireland he will have achieved greater honors than could be attained at Washington.

Although no names have been formally announced, it is understood that the Sinn Fein delegates to the conference will be Arthur Griffith, founder of the Sinn Fein; Michael Collins, Finance Minister; Robert C. Barton, who has been a leading figure in the negotiations; Eamon J. Dugan, Sinn Fein member of Parliament, and George Gavin Duffy, who has acted as representative of the Sinn Fein abroad. These men were to have been the delegates to the conferenc at Inverness which was called off by Premier Lloyd George.

CHURCH SOCIETY BANQUET

Helping Hand Society of Trinity M. E. Church Celebrates First Anniversary

The Helping Hand Society of Trinity M. E. Church gave a banquet Thursday evening, in the lecture room of the church, in honor of their first anniversary. The society had as their guests of honor the pastor, Rev. Dr. D. H. Martin, the superintendent of the Sunday School, Mr. C. E. Pierpoint and the Asbury Bible Class.

The room and tables were beautifully and appropriately decorated with ferns and cut flowers.

A short speech was made by the President of the Society, Mrs. Lavinia Fitzgerald, in which she outlined the work accomplished by the Society since its organization last September, and touched upon some of the work that the Society hopes to accomplish this year.

Dr. Martin responded very graciously, thanking the Society for the support they had given him since his pastorate in this city and predicting still greater achievements through the Society. Mr. Pierpoint also made a very interesting and helpful speech as did several members of the Bible Class.

The banquet was largely attended and was pronounced a success by everyone. The Helping Hand Society hopes to make this year a Banner year and one of more service and helpfulness.

Bible Thought for Today

THE WAY TO FREEDOM:—Ye shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free.—John 8.32.

WASHINGTON DAY BY DAY

Washington, Oct. 1.—At this time it seems that the Senate Democrats, under leadership of Senator Simmons of North Carolina, have obtained an important victory in the consideration of the tax revision bill. Republican leaders are conceding that the force of opposition to the bill will make it necessary for them to rewrite the bill almost in its entriety either by withdrawing it from the Senate or by suffering important ammendments to be made on the floor of the Sanate.

Stated in a general way, the obnoxious features of the bill to which the Democrats have been successfully objecting are those which purpose lifting the taxes on the rich and placing them on the less able to pay taxes. The Republicans had proposed to abolish the taxes on excess profits of large corporations and make the surtax on large individual income less even than the rates in the House bill.

Senator Simmons and his colleagues, working unconsciously with the so-called agricultural bloc of the Senate, have virtually won a great victory on the proposition of lessening taxes on the rich and it is now certain that amendments to be adopted to the tax bill will increase the burden of the rich and decrease the burden of the poor. The Democrats of the Senate, although numbering only 37, have been almost a unit in supporting the vigorous onslaught of Senator Simmons and have been responsible for the sudden determination of the Republican majority to change the bill.

Vote on German Treaty Oct. 14.

Although John Barleycorn almost preventeo, the Senate has reached an agreement for a vote on the treaty with Germany on October 14. The Senate Democrats agreed to vote after a reasonable time on the theory that they did not wish to be placed in an attitude of delaying the business of the nation. Their action was in direct contrast to that of the Republicians on the treaty of Versailles who did everything within their power to delay and prevent a vote on ratification.

The interference of John Barleycorn came about when Senator Sterling of South Dakota, afraid that the Senate might pass the tax bill, ratify the German treaty and then adjourn, insisted that any unanimous consent agreement for a vote on the treaty contain also a provision for a vote on the anti-beer bill. But when Sterling was assured by Majority Leader Lodge that consideration would be given the beer bill before adjournment of this session, he withdrew his objection to the unanimous consent agreement and permitted it to be placed on record.

Dry Heads Worried By Report

Probition Commissioner R. A. Haynes evidently was somewhat perturbed at the statement made in some of the local papers a day or two ago to the effect that hotels, restaurants and apartment houses are being circulated with quotations on the most recent market prices of booze of various sorts.

The commissioner issued a formal statement in which he reminded the owners of such places that they are libale, under the law, to have their places closed as a result of such activities.

"It is well in this connection to contemplate what would be the result of open saloons and cheap booze among the thousands of idle men and women, for whom the administration is making every possible effort to secure employment before the ominous winter sets in," said Mr. Haynes in his statement.

Foreign Debt Bill.

President Harding will, in the near future, make an appeal to Congress to pass the bill giving broad powers in the settlement of foreign loans to the Secretary of the Treasury. It is the hope of the administration that this bill can be passed prior to adjournment and the President is expected to exhort Congress to pass the bill whether it wants to or not.

The reason for this is that tremendous pressure in being brought to bear on the administration to make some sort of settlement of the debt question in the interest of the economic stability of the world. Bankers of New York and Europe are interested in the movement on the theory that there can be no settlement of the exchange situation until the problem of foreign debts is solved.

It is already admitted that the President will have a hard time forcing this bill through Congress. The reason is that the bill gives almost autocratic powers to the Secretary of the Treasury and will enable him to make any kind of settlement of the foreign debt that occures to him, short of actual cancellation of the debt.

The theory of Congress seems to be htat if no sharp practices are contemplated in the settlement of the debt question and if the administration really is determined to make an equitable settlement that will be agreeable to all Amercians, there is no reason why the terms of settlement cannot be arranged in advance and then submitted to Congress for approval.

STORM CAUSES MUCH DAMAGE TO PROPERTY

Several Lives Lost and Heavy Damage Reported in N. Y. and Penna.

FRUIT BELT HURT

Many Small Boats on Lake Erie Capsized. Belive Death List Will be Increased When Check is Made.

Philadelphia, Oct. 1.—A terrific electric and wind storm which swept Eastern Pennsylvania late yesterday, caused heavy property damage and was responsible for the death of one man and the injury of several others.

In this city a trolley car loaded with passengers was struck by lightning. Six persons were injured and the car was set on fire. At York, Pa., Charles Canter, of New York, was killed when his automobile was overturned by the wind.

Buffalo, N. Y., Oct. 1.—A cyclonic storm having as its path the entire section of Western New York from the Pennsylvania State line to the Canadian border, today caused a property loss that will aggregate several million dollars, killing at least one person and injuring several hundred. A number of small boats are reported missing on Lake Erie and it is believed that the death rate will be materially increased when the final check of the storm's toll has been made.

The 75-mile an hour gale, accompanied by torrential rain, swooped down upon the unsuspecting communities off Lake Erie shortly after 10 o'clock yesterday morning. Half an hour later the sun appeared through the clouds and Western New York began to check up the damage. The storm struck a fishing fleet in Lake Erie off Dunkirk, overturning a dozen or so dories. Capt. Charles W. Kley, of Dunkirk, was drowned.

The far-famed Niagara fruit belt suffered severely in the storm. According to meagre reports obtained from the various sections of the belt yesterday evening, thousands of apple and peach trees were either unrooted or broken by the wind.

New York, Oct. 1.—New York was lashed late yesterday by a heavy wind and rain storm. The wind at times attained a velocity of 52 miles an hour, and one and a half inches of rain fell in less than half an hour.

The storm, which Weather Bureau officials said was caused by a low pressure area now sweeping eastward across Ontario, was generally felt in New England and as far South along the Atlantic Coast as North Carolina.

Dispatches from the northern part of New York State said that navigation in the St. Lawrence river had been suspended, and that there was considerable property damage from the wind.

CITY MANAGER

We published in yesterday's issue a most interesting article on the growth of the City Manager plan. At the Kiwanis dinner Thursday, Citizen Trimyer made an enthusing talk on the duties of Kiwanians. From the spontaneous shout of some seventy robustious Kiwanian throats at the conclusion of his remarks, and the unanimity with which they sprang to their feet in response to his invitation, it is evident that there will be some powerful work done in the tall timber at the polls next Tuesday. BUT—over confidence is often the cause of defeat! The Gazette accordingly warns its readers to beware lest this mistaken psychology bring about failure.

Let every man and woman in Alexandria get out and vote and get out and work during the hours between sun-up and sun-down on next Tuesday, October 4th.

FOUR MILLION UNEMPLOYED

The question of unemployment is rightly a national one. It is thus far mainly a controversy between employer and employee. The former cannot relinquish his war-time profits, and the latter holds out for a war-time wage. The usual element of supply and demand, while seemingly entering into the problem, is really a factor of minor importance. With a starved world demanding the fruit of every loom, the product of every furnace, the harvest of every farm in the country, there is no doubt that capital and labor should both be working overtime.

The question is national because the application must be national. Its solution lies in a readjustment of prices and wages, and therefore is a matter of rapprochement between employer and employee. Both sides must yield in the interest of the world at large.

The psychologic situation produced by the war must be obliterated and a new system oriented. The deluge of unskilled labor into the ranks of the expert; the substitution of the apprentice for the master workman; the turning out of make-shift work for a finished product; haste and waste instead of painstaking and economy;—these must be done away with, and exigency yield to conscientious endeavor.

The situation during the terrible months of the war was not unlike that of the French Revolution, when the cry of the day was, "Ca ira"—everything goes! Carpenters who did not know a a hatchet from a handsaw; machinists who had never seen a lathe; in fact, all classes of mechanical labor requiring an apprenticeship, were hired at an inflated wage that peaked the highest ever paid before—and the entire market for labor as well as capital thrown far out of the true perspective.

It will take time to readjust the complex machinery of industrial life. But that it will come, come peaceably, and with justice to all, we have not a doubt. In the meantime the conference at Washington will focus the attention of the country upon one of the serious situations of the present and unquestionably result in its betterment.

SOME TYPICAL RESULTS OF CITY MANAGER PLAN

The city which first made the commission-manager plan famous is Dayton, O. When the first Dayton commissioners took office in 1914, they realized that the success of the new government depended largely upon the personality and equipment of the man whom they would select to fill the City Managership. The job was offered to Colonel Goethals, the builder of the Panama Canal, at $25,000 a year. He declined. The commission then discovered H. M. Waite, of Cincinnati, and right hand man of young Mayor Hunt, whose brillian reform administration there was just closing. Waite had a long and important engineering experience. He refused an offer of $15,000 a year from a private corporation, and took the Dayton managership at $12,500.

During the next seven years the new government reduced the death rate and infant mortality; inaugurated free nursing, medical service and clinics; and extended food inspection; passed pasteurization ordinance; eliminated seven thousand dry vaults; substituted correction farm for work house; abolished prison contract labor; established parole system; enlarged Summer and Winter recreation program; supervised over five thousand vacant lot, home, school, and boys' and girls' gardens, furnishing free seed; increased park area from twenty to five hundred and forty one acres; increased public charities; inaugurated free legal aid bureau handling one thousand cases a year; eliminated eleven loan shark companies; operated free employment bureau for women; reorganized police and fire departments; established training schools, and members incorporated an educational society; organized crime prevention bureau and juvenile police; employed police women; abolished segregated district; motorized all fire apparatus; passed building code and provided inspection of buildings, sanitation and smoke prevention; established eight hour day for all city labor; constructed self-supporting garbage disposal plant; bought water supply and lands for $76,000 as against an earlier bid four times as high and gave abundant supply fo rthe first time; operated a municipal garage; saved several hundred thousand dollars per year to gas consumers by securing universal natural gas at 34c instead of artifical gas at 85c; contracted for better street lighting at lower rates despite modern costs; provided adequate budget procedure; central purchasing; central billing; reduced floating debt from $125,000 to $50,000 first year; put civil service on honest basis; provided annual audit of accounts; publicity on all city matters; appointed city plan commission and numerous other citizen advisory boards; fostered a civic music league; published 35,000 annual reports, annually distributing same to all homes.

Norfolk, Va., (pop. 115,777) had doubled its population suddenly during the war yet the new government dating from September, 1918, reduced the inherited deficit $2,000,000, added $1,500,000 of public improvements, made the police and fire departments the best paid in the country, established a juvenile court, employed visiting nurses, opened free medical and dental clinics, and established a city hospital. Through co-operation between the city-planning commission and the citizens, a street extension project which would ordinarily have cost the city $250,000, was completed for $20,000. A 50-acre water frontage worth $750,000 was acquired for $250,000. Fourteen new playgrounds were opened and recreation developed for adults, a municipal tennis tournament. Infant mortality was radically reduced. Taxes reduced 50 cents on the $100.

Wheeling, W. Va., (pop. 54,322) adopted the plan in 1917, and when the first manager died in 1919, this was what they said of his regime: Raised all wages of all city employees. Saved $12,000 by combining jobs. Motorized the fire department. Wiped out the red light district and gambling. Gave city a new electric light system without extra cost. Negotiated new contracts that saved the city $9,500 on gas and $20,000 on electricity per year. Made the traction company pay half the cost of two new bridges. Settled garbage problem. Discovered old government had signed away city's rights in a telephone merger, started suit and recovered cash and privileges worth $110,000. Sold old city gas plant to good advantage. Defeated street railroad fare increase by proving overvaluation.

Kalamozoo, Mich., (pop. 48,487). The new government found $2,000,000 more real estate values by equalization and $82,500 of property that had escaped taxation. Established a budget and lived within it. Cleared off inherited deficit of $82,000. Centralized purchasing. Saved the people $100,000 annually by earning better fire insurance rate. Established veneral disease clinics. Sold coal from city yard at cost. United private and city nursing under full-time city physician. Enlarged the parks 5 acres. Made the government more understandable by a municipal exhibit, by a bulletin periodically distributed to every home, and by a readable annual report.

Alameda, Cal., (pop. 28,806) Adopted modern zoning ordinance excluding business from residential areas. Enlarged parks. Cleaned streets by direct labor at one-third of the old contract price. Now cleans principal streets twice a day instead of three times a week. Makes a profit on garbage. In 1919 carried through street construction at 10 per cent less per mile than the old government did at pre war prices.

Waltham, Mass., (pop. 30,891). Although labor went up 54 per cent and materials 82 per cent, the tax rate went up only 8 per cent in the years from 1917 to 1919. Combined service of water and engineering departments, saving salaries and increasing efficiency. Avoided $300,000 expenditure for new water supply by stopping leaks and waste of 33 per cent. Central purchase and cash discounts. Community street dances and free movies.

St. Augustine, Fla., (pop. 6,192). Paid off inherited floating debt of $87,000, and put $16,000 into a sinking fund on water bonds. Adopted full instead of quarter valuation. Modernized the accounting system which has since been widely copied. Crime practically eliminated. Weekly street dances. Concerts, bowling greens, quoit pitching and other recreations established.

Cartersville, Ga., (pop. 5,810). Council under this plan has now twice been re-elected without contest or a single dissenting vote!

Griffin, Ga., (pop. 8,240). Saved $43,000 the first year while improving every department. Did more street work in one year than in any previous five years.

Sandusky, O., (pop. 22,897). Since this plan took effect reduced bonded debt $230,000 and paid off $25,000 of floating debt. The 1919 operating expenses, despite ascending wages and materials, were less than under old plan in 1914 and 1915. Saved 180,00 gallons of water leakage.

Ashtabula, O., (pop. 22,082). In the recent period when costs increased 1 per cent, lived within its income from the old tax rate. Municipal ownership of street car line voted.

Grand Rapids, Mich. (pop. 137,634) All sidewalks in city brought up to standard. Sewage problem solved. The city has assumed care of all destitute families. School dentist and medical inspector work extended. Large public works carried through effectively.

Jackson, Mich., (pop. 48,374). All public works planned for fifty years of growth on basis of complete topograhical survey. Public health nurses visit every new baby, rich or poor. Seven clinics. Pre-natal clinic has reduced infant mortality. Restaurants rated for cleanliness. In coal shortage, city bought abandoned coal mine in neighborhood, pumped it out, operated it successfully and profitably till shortage was relieved then leased the mine at a profit.

Sault Ste. Marie., Mich., (pop. 12,096) saved $67,000 in two years. Conducts municipal entertainments, concerts and lectures.

Mainstee, Mich., (pop. 9,690). New government found $80,000 authorized for new trunk sewer, but spent $1,200 cleaning tons of debris from old sewer which was then found adequate.

Tyler, Texas. (pop. 12,085). For the first time in many years operated without a deficit.

Coalgate, Okla., (pop. 4,000). Found departments badly run down, water supply so meagre that it was only available for household use six hours a day. Street light "refused to burn without constant coaxing, sewer system was stopped up in several places and disposal plant was out of business." All of which was speedily corrected.

San Jose, Cal., (pop. 39,604). Ran in 1919 with less expenditures than 1916 despite doubled costs. Fire loss only 50c per capita. Finances in order. Surplus in city treasury.

Alhambra, Cal., (pop. 10,000). Purchased the water system and ran it for $14,000 a year less than the private company did.

Auburn, Me., (pop. 16,985). First year in over twenty years which closed without a deficit or a floating debt..

Watertown, N. Y., (pop. 31,263) New government, January, 1921 found $75,000 of unpaid accounts some of them five years old; 3,000,000 gallons of water, enough to supply the city, wasted daily; decentralized and questionable purchasing and book keeping; ridiculous red tape; police department 50 per cent undermanned; fire department unduly costly; all of which problems are being vigorously and effectively corrected by the experienced manager. Mr. Bingham formerly manager of Waltham and Norwood, Mass.

Wichita, Kans., (pop. 72,128). New government re-elected after two years with slight contest; first time any administration had unanimous press support. Built sewer with direct labor for $214,000 when lowest contractors' bid was $316,000. Began long-needed flood prevention work. Municipal entertainments, admission 10 to 50c, with grand opera singers, etc. Venereal disease clinic started. Tax levy not increased despite modern costs.

Hays, Kans., (pop. 2,339). Old government had never lived within its income. New government increased revenue of electric plant 134 per cent while decreasing cost of operation 11 per cent. Increased water receipts 115 per cent while cost decreased 71 per cent. Overcame deficit of $22,000 Modern budget and no deficits.

Webster City, Iowa. (pop. 29,053). Despite rapid increase in costs the valuation and tax levy were not increased in 1919.

These are only instances. So many such accounts are in evidence, that the cumulative mass of them is overwhelming, and it is unnecessary to add anything further. If these results are accomplished in other cities under the City Manager Plan of municipal government, may not the same results be accomplished in our city? Is not every voter convinced that the change is necessary? Why not then adopt that plan of city government which by experience for nineteen years, has shown results far surpassing the experience of the past under the old form of municipal government.

The City Manager movement is in no sense politically partisan. It is a movement in which every qualified voter is interested or whatever political affiliation. Every qualified voter should go to the polls and vote, October 4, upon the question, so that the result, whatever it may be, may be the emphatic expression of the qualified electorate.

Under our present city government, to whom may the citizen go for relief of any particular grievance, or for any particular reform in the administration of our city's affairs, the only answer is, it is too complicated to answer intelligently. It is as confusing to the average citizen as the visit of a stranger to the catacombs of Egypt. The citizen may chase about indefinitely without success. Not because of any desire of the authorities to avoid responsibility, but because of inability to ascertain to whom a grievance should be presented for redress.

Mrs. Thomas J. Davis and family, have returned to their home in Wolfe street, after spending the summer at Lorton, Va.

LOYAL ORDER OF MOOSE

Virginia Lodge No. 1076. Loyal Order of Moose, meets first and third Monday at their hall, corner Royal and Duke streets, at 7:30 p. m

At the thirty-third annual convention of our order, held in Toledo, Ohio, during the month of June last, a resolution was presented and unanimously adopted, providing that each lodge of the order initiate a James J. Davis Class on Thanksgiving Day, November 24th, 1921, and that each lodge telegraph Brother Davis at Washington, D. C., on that date, advising him of the number of candidates initiated.

Virginia Lodge No. 1076, at a recent meeting voted unanimously to concur in this resolution, and to conduct a special membership campaign beginning on September 1st, 1921, and ending on Thanksgiving Day, November 24th.

There are 1,035 children at Mooseheart now, living on 1,023 acres. We have spent more than $5,000,000.00 in the erection of buildings suitable for their care, training and education. This is indeed a wonderful work, one worthy of your support, when we consider that, had it not been for our membership in the Loyal Order of Moose, practically all of these children would be objects of charity in the communities from whence they came. Think of the thousands, and in some instances tens of thousands of dollars worth of protection the fathers of these children provided for them by paying two dollars per year toward Mooseheart. We know if you could spend just one day at Mooseheart we would have no difficulty enlisting your support in this campaign. However, picture in your mind for a moment, more than a thousand happy and contented children who have been snatched from the claws of ignorance and poverty to be surrounded by an environment which can not be surpassed and which will make them clean, capable and industrious men and women. We can do our friend or neighbor no greater injustice than to deprive him of the opportunity to be associated in this great work.

Club room open every night. Visiting Brothers welcome.

FRATERNAL ORDER EAGLES

West, secretary, will on October 5, resume their regular meeting nights of the first and third Wednesdays of each month. During the summer months this organization has only been holding one meeting per month. Now with the winter months approaching they expect to do much toward making their lodge a larger and more influential instiuttion. The meetings are held in the Eagles' Hall on the fourth floor of the Alexandria National Bank Building.

THE KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS

W. A. Devaughan, Grand Knight, Lawrence W. Corbett, Secretary

With the acquisition of their new club rooms at the corner of St. Asaph and Cameron streets, the Knights of Columbus of Alexandria, have achieved fulfillment of their highest aspiration—a home.

While every fraternal organization has for its ultimate goal the possession of a "home," the Knights of Columbus but recently took definite steps to bring about this well wished for end. In February of this year, the K. of C. appointed a "Home Committee," whose duty is was to inquire into the matter of launching a home movement, and that committee was directed to report, at the earliest opportunity, the outcome of their investigations. This committee was headed by C. Raymond Hellmtuh, as chairman, and the following gentlemen constiuted his staff of fellow-workers: Wm. P. Woolls, treasurer; E. Ethelbert Downham financial secretary; M. E. Green, recording secretary; William Desmond; George Mayer, W. M. P. Desmond; Joseph Lee Lash; George Kimball and Charles T. Hellmuth. With this chosen group of K. of C. enthusiasts the ambition of the Knights of Columbus had been confided to good hands, and upon them the local members focused their attention, always confident of the final outcome of their conclusions and labors. These men shirked no work; no committee ever worked any harder or more efficiently than "The K. of C. Home Committee." Through out the past eight months at their weekly meetings, the attendance of seventy-five per cent of the committee at every meeting evince the ardor and determination of these workers to effectuate for the council the one thing through which the orders' fraternal and civic aims could be realized.

The meetings were not mere perfunctory ones; the men sacrificed their evenings of pleasure in order to accomplish tangible results in the way of definite financial assets. And they were successful in their efforts. When the Master Masons had decided to dispose of their club rooms at the southeast corner of St. Asaph and Cameron streets, the Knights of Columbus were given the opportunity of purchasing these exceptionally well fitted quarters. The Knights of Columbus from the beginning were impressed with the club like features of the Master Mason's Club; and after negotiations with representatives of the Masonic Order, who showed the Knights of Columbus every courtesy, the committee decided to purchase the property. The deed of conveyance became a matter of record some ten days ago, and from that time on the Knights of Columbus have been in the actual possession and enjoyment of what will serve them as a "home" until the time arrives when they will be in a position to acquire more commodious and more elaborate headquarters.

The Knights of Columbus of Alexandria have been organized for over twenty years, and their new home has given new impetus to the fraternal and civic undertakings of the order, and with a center wherein the social, civic and fraternal efforts of the society may be concentrated, it is fair to presume that the progress of the council in the past but presages the sucess that lies before it in the forthcoming years.

ALEXANDRIA COUNCIL O. F. A.

The last meeting of this council was quite largely attended. The committees on campaign for new members report gratifying results. The next meeting of the council will be held next Friday evening, October 7th, when a number of applications will be presented and the degree of the order conferred. On last Thursday evening quite a large number of members of the Council were delightfully entertained at the home of Mr. B. F. Skinner, Mt. Ida.

Plans are being perfected for the holding of a District Council meeting in Fairfax County the latter part of this month.

ORIENTAL COURT No. 10

The last meeting of this court was quite largely attended. There was no degree work at this meeting but a social session was held, after which the court proceeded to the parlors of L. Shuman and Sons, where cream and cake was served.

This court will meet on Monday evening, when the trustees will submit their report, which for this term will be found in most gratifying condition.

ROYAL ARCANUM

The semi-monthly meeting of Alexandria Council, Royal Arcanum, was held last Tuesday evening and proved to be a most interesting one. The report of the committee on the reception and public entertainment on the occasion of the visit of the Grand Council officers of Virginia, was very encouraging. The influence of such a meeting as that held should prove a great incentive to this organization. It is expected the Grand Lodge officers will again visit the council within the next sixty or ninety days at which time it is planned to have a "GET-TOGETHER" meeting of their membership.

Samarian Rebekah Lodge No. 27, I. O. O. F.

Meets every second and fourth Friday, Alexandria National Bank Building.

Officers: N. G., Mrs. Ray Cobean; V. G., Mrs. R. E. Simpson; Secretary, W. Leon Clark, Sr.

The Rebekahs Degree will be conferred on a class of candidates on the evening of October 14th, and also on the 28th.

Mrs. Margaret Clark, directress of dramatic work, who is visiting Lynchburg, the home of he parents was a recent visitor to the Lynchburg Lodge No. 41, at which time a large class of candidates was received by the Rebekah Degree, work being conferred by the Crack Team of that lodge. Samarian Lodge team, will this coming working season introduce some novel features.

The piano recently purchased by this lodge nas been installed and many social affairs are planned for the winter months.

LODGE CONFERS DEGREE

Potomac Lodge of Odd Fellows, last evening conferred the initiatory degree on a class of six candidates. Reports of the Sovereign Grand Lodges which met in Toronto, Can., were made by brothers Martin Strausburg and Bontz. They were enthusiastic over the prospects of the order for next year. All report a fine time. The brethren are arranging for a big day on October 20th in Alexandria, when a large class of 300 will be given the three degrees. This meeting is being worked up by the Northern Virginia Odd Felows' Association.

"SHIP AHOY!"

What Happened in Des Moines No. 3

The following interviews from former car riders, reprinted from the Des Moines Evening Tribune, show how folks got down town when the street cars stopped and buses attempted to move car riders:

Catherine Dwyer, 923 Sixth Avenue—I rode on the handle bars of my friend's bicycle.

Dorothy Widdle, 1906 Dunham Avenue—I walked.

Molly Shlaferman, 684 Fifteenth Street—I rode down on top of a furniture van with about thirty other people.

Kenneth Robinson, Orchard Drive—I rode down in a crowded bus.

Josephine Dwyer, 923 Sixth Avenue—I was given a ride by a man driving a hay wagon.

M. Elias, 1312 Fremont Street—I rode in a bus and a big fat woman tried to get out and pushed half of us out with her.

This is the service bus men had promised car riders would be "cheaper, quicker and better" than street car service.

Inadequate fares and unrestricted bus compitition forced the Des Moines' street railway to abanoon all city service—over 92 miles of lines—onAuguse4, 1921.

JOY BROUGHT INTO HOME

By Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, Restoring Mrs. Benz to Health

Altoona, Pa.—"I am writing to tell you what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me. We have had six children die almost at birth. From one hour to nineteen days is all they have lived. As I was going to have another, I took a dozen bottles of your Vegetable Compound and I can say that it is the greatest medicine on earth, for this baby is now four months old and a healthier baby you would not want. I am sending you a picture of her. Everybody says, 'That is some healthy looking baby.' You have my consent to show this letter."—Mrs. C. W. BENZ, 131 3rd Ave., Altoona, Pa.

No woman can realize the joy and happpiness this healthy babe brought into the home of Mrs. Benz, unless they have had a like experience.

Every woman who suffers from any ailments peculiar to her sex, as indicated by backaches, headaches, bearing-down pains, irregularities, nervousness and "the blues" should not rest until they have given Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial.

SAREPTA LODGE I. O. O. F.

Meets every Wednesday at Odd Fellows Hall, N. Columbus street.

At our last session held Wednesday, September 28, the initiatory degree was conferred upon a class of candidates.

Noble Grand J. Morrow and Vice Grand E. C. Todd are live wires, and are always on hand at lodge meetings and are promoters of the great priciples of our order in visiting the sick and administering to those who are in need. We are advised by Hill Montlague, President of the Orphans Home in Lynchburg, that Brother C. S. Self and the widow of L. H. McDaniels names are placed on the sueprannuated list and they would receive liberal allotments monthly from the home. Brother Will Marlain from Potomac Lodge and a representative from the Encampment Branch of the order to the Sovereign Grand Lodge which meets in Toronto, Canada, told us all about his trip and from the reports the order in increasing in membership in the United States, and European countries.

Brother J. A. Myers, Past Grand of Sarepta Lodge, gave us a good talk upon the principles of the order.

Next Wednesday night he will make arrangements and go in the detailed work relative to the Grand Rally of Odd Fellowship which will take place in this city October 20 next, by a parade in the evening, and when the first, second and third degree of the order will be staged at the Opera House upon a class of 300 candidates, we expect to have over 2,000 Odd Fellows in our city at that time. Would have more, but lacking to hotel accomodations we cannot take care of them that live at a distance and have to stay over night.

VETERANS OF FOREIGN WARS
AN APPEAL

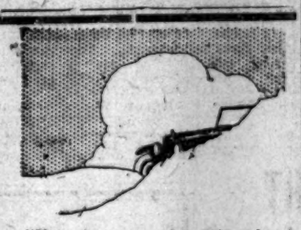
To all who desire to help the ex-service man.

The city Council has granted us permission to use old Truck House on Prince Street for our Hall and meeting place. But we must make necessary repairs, which we are doing. Here is where you people who have the boys at heart can come in and help us. We need everything that goes to make a room look like Home. There is nothing there but bare walls and bare floors. Isn't there something in your Office, Store or Home that is no good to you but badly needed by us? Look around and see and then spend one cent and drop us a card. We will call and get it, Our Hopes are on you helping us.

It is our desire to make this room a comfort and joy to all ex-soldiers Just the right place to go and sit and send that letter home.

Respectfully,
Howard L. Arnold,
Commander
W. J. Gillman, Adjutant.

(This column will be published each week on Saturday, and is open to all Fraternal Orders of the City. Contributions should be sent in so as to reach this office not later than Friday morning—Editor.)



"THE best car of its class in the world" is not merely a nice-sounding phrase. It expresses a fact which is impressed upon us anew every day by the experiences of Hupmobile owners.

OH! MY BACK!

The Expression of Many a Kidney Sufferer In Alexandria.

A stubborn backache is cause to suspect kidney trouble. When the kidneys are inflamed and swollen, stooping brings a sharp twinge in the small of the back, that almost takes the breath away. Doan's Kidney Pills revive sluggish kidneys—relieve aching backs. Here's Alexandria proof:

Mrs. M. E. Williams, 523 Oronoco St., says: "I was so bad off with pains in my back I was about all worn out. I put my hands on my back trying to relieve the pain through my kidneys. When I bent over I could hardly straighten again. This weakened me very much and made me so nervous I could hardly stand the least noise. Dizziness affected me when I bent and everything would turn black. My kidneys didn't act at all right. I tried different things but nothing did me any good until I started using Doan's Kidney Pills. I kept getting better right along and was soon cured."

Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Williams had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfgrs., Buffalo, N. Y.

DREADNAUGHTS Vs. SHAMROCKS

Walter Bealle, The Strike-Out King, To Pitch Against Dreadnaughts

The Shamrocks, pride of Southeast Washington, will be entertained in this city Sunday on the Dreadnaught field. This team visited this city several weeks ago, putting up one of the greatest exhibitons of baseball ever seen, when they held the Dreadnaughts Champions of Virginia, to a 2 to 1 score. Both teams went scoreless for ten long innings, the Shamrocks pulling a run in the 11th and the Dreadnaughts 2 runs in their half, winning the old ball game. Walter Bealle, strike-out demon of the North Carolina State League struck out 20 men in this game, and he will come back strong against the Dreadnaughts Sunday in an attempt to get revenge.

The Dreadnaughts will work Frye or Hart in this game, with the former being the favorite. Tolson, will play first with Long in reserve and Berkly will hold down the hot corner. Umpires Long and Jaescke will handle the game. The following is the line up of the Shamrocks, which is the same that played here before: Sweeney, right field; Sullivan, left field; C. Steele, first base; Smithson, short stop; E. Steele, second base; Miller, third base; Robey, catcher; Conners, catcher; Flavis, center field; Bealle, pitcher; Humphreys, pitcher; Langon, pitcher.

Summer Feeding Pays

Eggs pay any time, but when other flocks fall off yours pay best. Feed plenty of protein now. Hens need it for eggs and for the coming moult. If they don't get enough, they will rob their body-tissues to get it. Then it will take twice the feed to get them back.

Keep Purina on the Job

It's rich in egg-making, body-building protein. Get a shorter moult and more winter eggs.

ATTRACTIONS NEXT WEEK IN WASHINGTON

Shubert-Belasco Opens With Vaudeville

SECOND WEEK OF THURSTON

Anita Stewart at Rialto—Broken Wing to Come to Poli's.

Shubert—Vaudeville

Marie Dressler, the effervescent star of musical comedy, will head the second big week of Shubert vaudeville at the Belasco Theatre, beginning with the Monday matinee, October 3.

Miss Dressler comes to the Belasco fresh from the Winter Garden success, "Cinderella on Broadway," and will offer a mirthful sketch fashioned to display her unusual talents for extracting laughter.

Hetty King, a scintillating star of song and dance, "Milo" the talk of Broadway for months, Llora Hoffman, and other acts of superlative value will include Hattie Althoff & Sister, Bert Sheppard, "In Argentina" and La Pinski's Animal Actors. The Shubert topical news and a Bud Fisher comedy will complete the bill.

The program will be presented at the popular scale of prices with 50 cents for the best seat at the matinee and $1 the top price at night, except on Saturdays.

Photo-Play

The next attraction at Moore's Rialto Theatre, beginning, Sunday, October 2nd, will be Anita Stewart in "Sowing the Wind." In "Sowing the Wind" an unusual story is unfolded—it concerns an innocent convent girl who goes out into the bleak world only to discover that her mother is the keeper of a notorious gambling house. Her struggles to get away from the possibility of emulating her mother, her subsequent meeting with the man she loves and finally the locating of her father combine to make a story of unusual thrills. The romance is of the most exalting variety. A cast of unusual importance supports Miss Stewart.

The Broken Wing

Coming to Poli's Theatre next week is a brand new comedy drama by Paul Dickens and Charles W. Goddard. One of the big events of the play is the thrilling scene where an aeroplane, having broken a wing as the story goes, comes crashing down onto the stage. This scene was only perfected after the expenditure of many thousands of dollars and offers a spectacle worth witnessing. A special Thursday matinee has been arranged and the popular prices of one dollar will prevail for the best seats.

Thurston

There are mysteries before which the universe stands aghast. Only a few in past ages have unravelled their secrets. Unless you have felt the thrills of amazement, have been spellbound by the Hindoo magic and the weird supernatural demonstrations of Thurston, you have missed an experience of the rarest mental sensations. Thurston will be at the Shubert Garrick Theatre for one more week in order that all may see him.

Gayety

Begining with Sunday matinee, the "Flashlight of 1921" will hold sway at the Gayety Theatre for one week. A chorus of beauties headed by Shorty McAllister and Harry T. Shamon go to make up one of the season's biggest burlesque shows.

Harum Scarum

Edgar Bixley and Sam Micals will be the drawing card at the Capitol Theatre next week in the hit of the season, "Harum Scarum."

It is a fun offering of the highest character with a special dancing classic, "La Viva."

A chorus of feminine beauties will be out in front throughout the entertainment.
